

Name: _____

Date: _____

Landforms Review

Instructions

1. Study the landform pictures in Section 1 and the land form descriptions Section 2.
2. Then, write the letter of the landform pictures that matches the description in the box on the second page.
3. Finally, write the word from the Word Bank that is the name of the landform on the in the box beside the description.

Section 1: Landform Pictures

Landform A
Landform B
Landform C

Landform D
Landform E
Landform F
Landform G

Landform H
Landform I
Landform J
Landform K
Landform L

Section 2: Landform Names

canyon	glacier	Word Bank	hill	island
lake	mountain		plain	peninsula
river and river banks	sand dunes		waterfall	valley

---

Section 3: Matching

Letter of Picture	Descriptions	Name of Landform
	a rounded pile of dirt has high walls and sometimes a river flows at the bottom.
	a body of water that has land on both sides (banks)
	the highest landforms
	low flat land
	low land between mountains, surrounded on two or more sides by mountains.
	a piece of land surrounded by water on all sides
	a big pile of sand caused by blowing wind a big body of ice that moves very slowly when water goes over a cliff
	a body of land that is surrounded by water on three sides
	A body of water surrounded on all sides by land	